

Let's Make . . .

Home Décor Series

When: 10:30am to 12:30 pm
every other Saturday, beginning April 25, 2009

Cost: $25.00 (per participant/session, except April 25*)

Limit: 15 students (except April 25)

Description: A series of individual classes with emphasis on home décor.

April 25: pillow cases*(free, 10:30am – 4:30pm)

✚ Participation class: all pillow cases will be donated (see separate flier)

May 9: decorative pillows

✚ Demonstration class: fabrics, trims, fillings, tools, basic techniques, closures

May 23: table cloths & napkins

✚ Demonstration & participation class: measuring, sizes, fabrics, trims, basic techniques, mitering corners

Jun 6: bedspreads/bed throws/duvet covers

✚ Demonstration class: fabrics, trims, measuring, basic techniques, closures

Jun 20: more decorative pillows

✚ Demonstration class: more shapes, novelty pillows, more details

Additional topics, at future times, will include curtains, roman shades, and more!

General Format: (excluding April 25)

The class format will consist mainly of demonstration. In some cases specific techniques will be practiced. In all cases participants may continue with an “assisted sewing” session following the demonstration for an additional $40.00 (1:30 – 4:00) to begin work on their home décor project.

*All sewing levels are welcome in demonstration classes. Participation classes require some previous sewing experience and machine familiarity. For those with no prior experience attendance at the Beginning Sewing Series or Totally New class is recommended.